Time: 25 minutes
Grade: 1
Comments: Some of these paths may be muddy.

Laburnum Walk

Directions

This walk will take you along Laburnum Walk with the Adventure Playground on your right, then up Queen Mother's Drive. Continue up through the woods to the North Drive, and follow the path towards Camperdown House past the Putting Green. Finally, take the wooded path back down to the Wildlife Centre car park.

Points of interest

- Nice views of parkland.
- Camperdown House is named after the Battle of Camperdown in which Admiral Adam Duncan defeated the Dutch Navy in 1797.
- Most of the mature trees in the park were planted by the first Earl's forester, David Taylor.
