

6 ARTS AND BUSINESS SCOTLAND AWARDS 2006 (AN347-2006)

The Committee are asked to note that on 11th October, 2006 at the Arts and Business Scotland 20th Anniversary Awards held in the Edinburgh Festival Theatre, Dundee City Council Leisure and Communities Department, in partnership with the Clydesdale Bank, won the Arts and Communities Category for the "Count Me In" Project.

The "Count Me in" Project aims to develop the numeracy skills of pre-school children through stories and play. Specially chosen books with accessories supporting each story, contained within colourful fabric bags, are available for loan to the public through the libraries network.
