

6 ARTHURSTONE LIBRARY CENTENARY EVENTS - 7TH TO 12TH FEBRUARY 2005
(AN49-2005)

The Committee is invited to note the Centenary of the Arthurstone Library which took place on Thursday 10 February 2005.

The occasion was marked by an event in the Library which was hosted by the Lord Provost, and which included some background on the development of Carnegie libraries in Scotland, a public exhibition on the history of the Arthurstone Library, and a short talk by Clair Marie Watson, celebrated local author. There was also exhibitions and displays mounted by community groups and organisations in the Stobswell area including the International Women's Centre, Dundee Action Team for Jobs, Baxter Park Ranger Service.

Other activities which took place during the week included: Baby Rhyme Time with visit from Bookstart Bear; Author Elizabeth McNeil held a session encouraging participants to start up an Arthurstone Reading Group; and Angela Knowles provided Storytelling to invited school classes.