LOCATION

Dundee is Scotland's fourth largest city with an estimated population in the region of 515,000. The city is the regional centre for commerce, retailing and employment within Tayside, and is located on the east coast of Scotland with 90% of the country's population within 90 minutes' drive time.

Dundee is currently undergoing significant regeneration and investment, including the £1 billion on-going transformation of Dundee's city waterfront with the realignment of the waterfront, centred around the V&A Dundee, Scotland's first design museum.

The subjects form part of the West Marketgait Development in an established business district with office, leisure and residential properties in close proximity. The City's Travelodge is situated adjacent with the site immediately to the south providing a mix of leisure, retail and office premises. Neighbouring operators include, Grosvenor Casino, Papa Johns, Travelodge and PureGym.

DESCRIPTION

The subjects comprise a detached 2 storey former mill building of stone construction beneath a pitched and slated roof. The building, formally The Engine Room, part of the larger Tay Works has been creatively converted to provide the present office accommodation over 2 floors.

The ground floor has access from the north elevation. Internally accommodation is primarily open plan, bright and modern throughout.
