Location

The City Centre is accessed from Marketgait, the inner ring road and Dock Street (A92), the A92 being a main arterial route between Aberdeen and Fife. Murraygate, the main shopping precinct in Dundee, is a bustling area with many household names, including Marks & Spencer, Tesco & Costa. Various streets run perpendicular to Murraygate, most notably Commercial Street, Castle Street and Reform Street, occupied by nationals and independents and is flanked by the Wellgate Centre, on the East and the Overgate Centre, on the West.

Description

- The subjects form part of a detached two storey office pavilion of brick
- construction under a flat felt roof. There is one remaining suite at ground floor level which provides a selfcontained office which is accessed from the main campus area. The premises were last used for occupation health purposes and so are currently arranged internally to provide a large reception area, five no. offices / consulting rooms with ancillary store, kitchen and WC facilities. The subjects benefit from a vinyl floor finish throughout, plaster on hard wall, lighting by way
- of fluorescent strip fittings supplementing natural light provided by double glazed windows, a gas central heating system and a suspended grid ceiling. Ample car parking is provided on site.
