

PREPARATION	Tick
Ensure everyone named in the Title Deeds is Registered as a landlord - private landlords must register with their Local Authority to ensure that minimum legal requirements are met. You can register online at: www.landlordregistrationscotland.gov.uk
Check the implications of renting your property for your mortgage and Tax purposes.
Ensure you have correct landlord insurance in place for the property.
Ensure you have an Energy Performance Certificate (EPC) that has been issued in the last 10 years. https://www.scottishepcregister.org.uk/
Ensure you have an up to date landlord's Gas Safety Certificate (this must be provided by an approved Gas Safe Engineer within the last 12 months).
Check your property complies with the Repairing Standard - this sets condition and maintenance standards which landlords must adhere to. For more details have a look on the Housing and Property Chamber website. https://www.housingandpropertychamber.scot/repairs
Check if you need a HMO licence (mandatory licencing applies to houses or flats occupied by three or more unrelated people who share bathroom or kitchen facilities). For any queries on this, contact the HMO team on 08000 853 638. See Factsheet.
Ensure the property has satisfactory provision for detecting and warning of fires. The Repairing Standard includes a duty to ensure that homes have smoke and heat detectors. This requires more than one alarm. All alarms must be interlinked and either mains wired with battery back-up or tamper proof long-life lithium battery, the expiry date must be visible. For more details see guidance notes
It is a legal requirement to provide an Electrical Installation Condition Report (EICR). As part of the EICR you must ensure all electrical appliances have undergone Portable Appliance Testing (PAT tested). For more details have a look on the Housing and Property Chamber website.
All soft furnishings provided must meet fire safety standards. The Furniture & Furnishings (Fire Safety) Regulations 1988
The Repairing Standard includes the duty for adequate Carbon Monoxide (CO detector(s) to be in each room where there is a gas appliance, excluding an appliance used solely for cooking. For more details have a look on the Housing and Property Chamber website.
Letting agents and landlords are obliged by law to carry out risk assessments for Legionnaire's disease, and implement any necessary measures. For more details have a look on the Health and Safety Executive website. www.hse.gov.uk
It is a legal requirement that all advertising of the property must include the Energy Performance Rating Certificate and Landlord Registration Number.
Collate a list of contact details for trade's people you trust should something go wrong with the property. For more details have a look on the Trusted Traders website. www.trustedtrader.info
Ensure all certificates (Gas Safety, EPC and EICR) are photocopied and are present in the property for the tenant to inspect.
Compile a detailed inventory and take meter readings. Remember the burden of proof will be upon you to evidence any claims on the deposit. Adequate time should also be given for the tenant to check and countersign the inventory.

If you are using a Letting Agent, make sure they are registered on the Letting Agent Register and can provide you with a registration number, in the format LARN_____. The Letting Agent Code of Practice sets out the standards all those doing letting agency work must meet and came into force on the 31 January 2018. You can check the Letting Agent register at https://lettingagentregistration.gov.scot/
STARTING THE TENANCY
A new type of tenancy came into force on 1 December 2017, called the Private Residential Tenancy. This will replaced assured and short assured tenancy Agreements for all new tenancies. To find out more information about the new tenancy please use the following links: https://rentingscotland.org/articles/new-private-residential-tenancy https://beta.gov.scot/publications/private-residential-tenancies-landlords-guide/ Here is a direct link to an explanatory video and also the website you can use to create a Scottish Government Model Tenancy Agreement: https://youtu.be/SCCPXaD88Ro https://www.mygov.scot/tenancy-agreement-scotland/
Ensure your tenants have your contact details and know how to deal with disrepair issues which may occur, such as a broken boiler.
Look around the property with your tenant(s). Show them where the stopcock is to turn off the water supply, how to switch off the electricity and how to reset the electricity if a fuse blows.
Hand over a copy of the keys to the tenant - a Key Agreement form will ensure you have signed authorisation to retain keys to the property and clarify when these can be used.
Put the deposit into a Tenancy Deposit Scheme within 30 working days of the tenancy beginning and notify the tenant in writing which Scheme is holding their deposit. https://www.gov.uk/tenancy-deposit-protection
Let the Council know a tenant is moving in so they have the information for Council Tax purposes. Tell the tenant you have done this.
Arrange a visit in 3 months' time to check the property and review things with the tenant.
Consider joining a Landlord Accreditation Scheme or Association for ongoing guidance and support. For more details have a look on the Dundee Landlord Accreditation page on the Dundee City Council's website and the Landlord Accreditation Scotland website.
Remember - Do you wish to rent your property to 3 or more unrelated persons? If YES this would be a House in Multiple Occupation. This means you will need to adhere to a more stringent set of guidelines and requirements and will require a licence in addition to your Landlord Registration. See our HMO Factsheet for more information, and the Guidance Notes for full details, available on the Dundee City Council Website.
