

After three years DIWC's 50th Anniversary Exhibition finally gets to the Glasgow Women's Library

“Where the World Meets as Neighbours”: More than 50 years of Dundee International Women's Centre

26th February - 7th May

Marking half a century of Dundee International Women's Centre this exhibition showcases their transformative work changing women's lives.

Curated by students and volunteers from all over the world, it includes archive materials alongside personal stories and is a celebration of the achievements of women from the most diverse cultures, backgrounds and ages who have made Dundee their home over the past 53 years.
