

Celebrating 50 Years of Dundee International Women's Centre

Founded in 1969, Dundee International Women's Centre began life in a small flat in the Hilltown. Now located in our community centre on Dundonald Street, we provide over 25 weekly classes and groups, plus regular events and courses. We support our learners to attend by offering low cost childcare on site, and our work is funded in part by our Social Enterprise, Rise & Shine mobile childcare service. <https://riseandshinechildcare.org/>

Over the years we have supported thousands of women to gain confidence, build a social circle and go on to education and employment.

Have you or someone you know attended DIWC in the past? We'd love to hear from you!

Email Susan A'Brook – susan@diwc.co.uk – with your story.
