

DIWC 50th Anniversary

This year Dundee International Women's Centre is 50! To kick off the celebrations there were two open days in May attended by over 200 current and former learners, staff, volunteers and supporters. These pictures show women at the old Centre in Lyon Street and two former learners cutting the cake at one of the open days.

