

Amina Muslim Women's Resource Centre – We Want To Work With You

Scotland is changing. We at Amina MWRC want the Muslim and minority ethnic women we serve to be at the forefront of that change; promoting diversity, equality and inclusion in the workplace and wider civic life. We ask you, could your staff team / workplace / institution or employer benefit from our free, yes FREE experience and expertise? Could our stories and examples of innovative best practice help you to unleash society's greatest untapped potential? We think so.

Amina Muslim Women's Resource Centre are Scotland's award-winning national hub for engaging with and supporting Muslim women. Based across Dundee, Edinburgh and Glasgow, we work with approximately 4,000 Muslim and Minority Ethnic women per year, across a breadth of projects including;

- National free-phone Muslim Women's Helpline
- Assets based Employability Project
- Creative campaigning by the Violence Against Women and Girls Campaign
- Inspire, Connect and Enable to tackle social isolation
- Refugee Support project to integrate refugees relocated to Dundee via the Vulnerable Person's Relocation Scheme

As a team, we are committed to creating a fair, just and equal Scotland where Muslim and Minority Ethnic women have the freedom and safety to actively participate in civic society without fear of discrimination or inequality.

In a bid to promote greater understanding and appreciation of the needs of Muslim women we are excited to offer you the opportunity to receive FREE training for your workplace. Co-produced with our Amina service users, our 2 hour interactive workshop explores;

- Demographic change and the need to offer inclusive, faith and culturally sensitive services and workplace environments
- Being Muslim, what does it mean in practice? What does my faith mean to me?
- Barriers to progression, challenges of the workplace and equality of opportunity
- Ways to get involved with Amina MWRC
