

Building Scotland Fund

The £150 million Building Scotland Fund (BSF) will invest £70 million in financial years 2018 to 2019 and £80 million over financial years 2019 to 2021. The Fund is the precursor to the Scottish National Investment Bank. Co-investment with the BSF will support unlocking housing development across all tenures, the development of modern industrial and commercial property, and business-led research and development projects.

If you are thinking about developing industrial or commercial premises, building new homes or investing in research and development, loan and equity support may be available through the Building Scotland Fund. The Fund is open to non-public sector organisations including: businesses, housing associations and universities.
