

The two data zones are situated in the North of Dundee and part of the wider East End ward.

The majority of residents are families, the area has a higher number of children than the overall Dundee average. Most people live in long established semi-detached or flatted properties and rent this from a social housing landlord. The areas are within the 5% most deprived. Situated in the west of the East End ward the area has easy access to Caird and Finlathen Parks.

 children in the area attend nursery/primary, secondary and special schools 416

 The majority of children attend Rowntree Primary and Craigie, Morgan and St Pauls secondary schools

 Attendance and attainment are lower than the Dundee average

 £8.50 average After School Care per day

 53% of parents asked didn't know they could receive help for registered childcare

 14% of 16 to 19 years olds not participating in education, employment or further training up to 5% of 17 to 21 year olds are entering university

 38% of residents are income deprived

 29% of residents are employment deprived

 The number of people claiming benefits increased during the pandemic

 1871 Total population = 24% Children | 59% Working age | 17% Elderly

 57% of properties are semi detached

 34% of properties are flats

91% of council tenants have lived in their house for 3 yrs or more

68% of households are rented

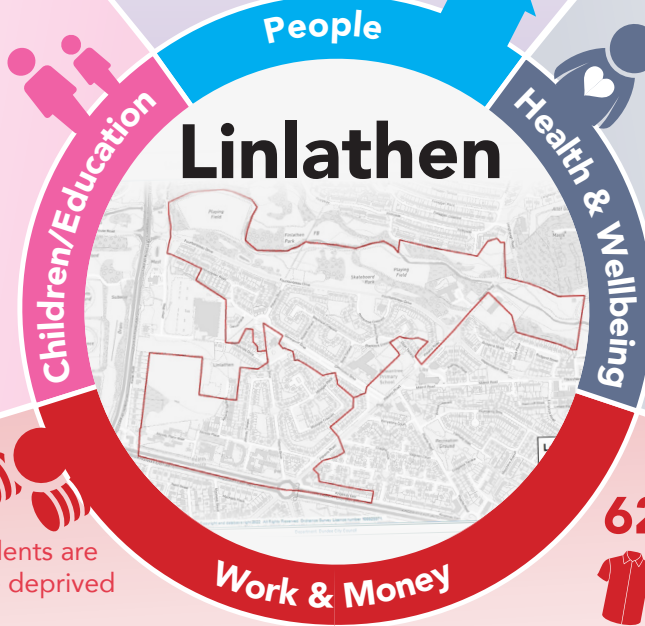

73% of dwellings are in Council Tax band A

 Both data zones are in 5% most health deprived

 1/3 of population prescribed drugs for anxiety, depression or psychosis

 Admittance to hospital for drug or alcohol related issues is higher than the Scottish standardised ratio

 Engage Dundee 2020 showed that over half of respondents from this area were struggling with their mental health as a result of lockdown

 62% of primary school children receive a school clothing grant

 Enquiries to the Citizens Advice Bureau are mainly around issues in relation to Universal Credit and Disability benefits

 52% of secondary school pupils receive a free school meal

 134 households applied for and received a fuel well grant

 59% of households receive council tax/housing benefit reduction